

Fun and Games this Fall

North Texas has no shortage of trendy spots for enjoying dining al fresco, taking in an outdoor concert, watching a great game, or hanging out with your favorite four-legged friend. Now that the weather is finally cooling off, make a game plan for good times with family and friends.

LEGACY HALL

Legacy Hall brings a new dining and drinking experience to North Texas. It's equal parts premium food hall, beer garden, craft brewery and live entertainment destination. The food hall has more than 24 artisanal food stalls run by local chefs and aspiring restaurateurs showcasing an array of international tastes and treats. And, you get a killer view to see live music, concerts, sporting events and more.

THE STAR

The Star District is the 91-acre campus, which houses the Dallas Cowboys World Headquarters. It's the ideal place to eat, shop and enjoy the Cowboys-themed facilities. From Greek food to Mexican to burgers, there are over 20 dining options at the Star as well as plenty of shopping. Guests can also sign up for a VIP tour to see where the Cowboys train. ## THE SHACKS

Six small restaurant spaces share a large open-air patio overlooking a public one-acre dog park. The innovative project brings a variety of restaurants, featuring an eclectic mix of dining, drinking and coffee options, from ramen and tacos, to burgers and seafood, plus a new beer and wine taproom. And there are live music events, trivia nights, kid-friendly programs and pet-specific events including adoptions and mobile vets. shacksaustinranch.com

The State Fair of Texas

This quintessential Texan event celebrates the best of our state, from agriculture to education to fried foods. Every Texan knows you can't beat the State Fair's livestock shows, midway rides and tasty treats. This year there are also pig races, a chainsaw carver, magic shows, pogo stick stunt shows, a basketball trick show and archery. bigtex.com
